

The following is a list of client cases, each of which was handled by Attorney Kirk Bowden Obear. These are intended only as examples of past successful casework and are not intended to be an indication of the likelihood of success in any other particular case. Just because you have been charged with a similar offense, you should not assume that the result in your case would be the same as any of those listed below. However, these examples are given to demonstrate the level of commitment and dedication to your case that you should expect from my firm.
